

WHAT GOOD COULD GOD BRING FROM THIS?

Your dad gets a new job and your family has to move.

Someone says something unkind about you.

Your family has to cancel a trip.

You do not get picked for the part you wanted in a play.

Your friend leaves you out of a game.

You get in trouble for something you did wrong.

You have to wait a long time for something you really want.

You are put in a group with people you do not know well.

You cannot do an activity because of bad weather.

You are not invited to something you wanted to go to.

You get hurt and cannot play your sport for a while.

Someone else gets the award you wanted.

Your parents say no to something you really wanted.

You have to start over after making a big mistake.

You feel lonely because your friends are busy.

You work hard on a project, but it does not turn out the way you hoped.
